To a potential employer of Re'Neil D. Weathers

This letter is to acknowledge that this jobseeker is a bondable applicant through The Federal Bonding Program, administered by the US Department of Labor.

The Oklahoma Employment Security Commission (OESC) is the state administrator of this program and issues fidelity bonding (for theft, forgery, and embezzlement protection) for jobseekers that an employer may consider a hiring risk, due to some issue in their background. The coverage begins at $5,000 and may go as high as $25,000 depending on circumstances of employment and the potential exposure amount for a loss, at a work location. Bonds are issued for a period of six (6) months and at no cost to the employer. All required paperwork for the bond is completed by OESC. During the last 50 years of this program, less than 1% of all bonds resulted in a claim, demonstrating that for most jobseekers, a real chance is all that is needed to prove themselves.

It is truly a WIN – WIN for both the employer and the jobseeker! AND it is really just that simple! The applicant can demonstrate their ability to be a productive worker and the employer can hire an applicant, who may have been too much of a risk to hire in the past. This bond allows the employer to get past “I’d like to hire you but...” and many more times than not, results in a business gaining a great and appreciative employee!

Any questions concerning this program may be addressed by contacting Pam Hoskins at (405) 557-5474 or Kristen Lee at (405) 557-7112.

Sincerely,

Pam Hoskins
